

MY UNIVERSITY

Hey...! Mia shouted her mother anxiously as she may go to college late during her first day. Seeing the time in the clock Mia woke up and started to get ready. Her mom reminded her to take the application on her study table. She grabbed the application and placed it in her bag carefully. She packed her breakfast in a box and ran towards the front door. She took her bicycle and started riding it saying bye to her mom.

Hi! I'm Mia, I want to graduate from VKM University of science. I'm always first in my class. I'm not sure about my grades now. Even though I want to study hard... I want to make friends and turn everyday into a sweet memory. I'll make my dreams come true.

FLORIDA STATE

FLORIDA STATE

Oops...! I dashed someone. Mia heard someone whispering that, "Is she out of her mind? How can she hurt a charming prince? Mia looked and saw an arrogant face looking at her. He left as someone called him Lee Jin.

Two girls came and helped her to get up. The Girl who is holding a book said that her name was Yue Ran and the other girl's name was Mi So. Yue Ran was pretty and calm. She is holding a book. She is medium height with cat eye spectacles and she has long hair . Mi So is short and cute. She is wearing a netted white dress and has short hair with ponytail. said that we need to submit our applications in reception.

So three of them headed there. On their way they saw an application lying on the floor named Tae Oh. They saw someone searching for something. Mia went there and gave him his application as she saw his photo in the application. But giving a nasty look he asked whether they needed his attention. Yue Ran, with frustration, shouted at him saying we are not fools to gain attention from a pervert. And left the place. Mi So said that she gave him a nice counter 'cause she heard that he asked the same question to other girls.

Three of them headed to the seminar hall. Many students are chatting loudly about the facts they know about the university ,teachers ,old students , achievements etc. That is a very big hall with chairs and a big dais. Students sat in their respective places. The hall filled with excitement. There is a screen on dais. In-front of it there are chairs seated by the principal and vice principal. To its left there is a microphone. The people around are waiting for the seminar to begin. The host started to call the people who took part in the establishment and some important people to give a small speech. Everyone gave a big round of applause for their speeches and finally the Principal took the mic and started to display a video on the screen. The video is about the experiences of old students who graduated from the university and settled in a higher position. Everyone shared their views about how they studied and enjoyed university life.

“Hello Students!”,said the principal. “Hello Sir!”,replied the students with enthusiasm. Principal started the speech about the university, “When I was young, I am very poor in studies. My father is a teacher, he taught many students and enjoyed their success as his success. When I am in 8th grade, my father lost his job as the principal forged students records. This made me dream about establishing a school and giving them good knowledge without discrimination. With the help my friend, Dr. Ki-hyong, the vice principal who is sitting beside me. My dream came true and we achieved many awards. Now, let's invite Ki-hyong to deliver a speech to the freshers." Now, Ki-Hyong takes the mic and starts his speech , "As Dr. Park-Hwong said, we struggled a lot to start the university and get some staff. But this hard work reaped a great success. I hope everyone will get good grades. I'm sure that I will remember this academic year forever. Thank you...

Three friends reached the classroom. There is only one person sitting in the room reading a book. His name is Kiyoshi. He said that everyone else did not come to the class and may be roaming the entire university. Three of them sat in the first bench. Yue Ran said she scored first rank in the entrance examination. Mi So said she ranked below ten and I said that scored 9th rank. Meanwhile Kyoshi left the class. Now some students have entered the class. Some are fighting for places, some are chitchatting. The bell has rung. A lady in her 30's entered the class room. She said, "Hi! students, I'm Ms. Naomi, your class teacher". I teach chemistry. If you have any problems, feel free to ask me. Two students entered the classroom. The one whom Mia dashed and the other who called him. Ms. Naomi allowed them in and asked the reason why they were late. They said that they sat in another classroom. But she was not satisfied with the answer. So she made them stand and started calling the rolls. Girls who sat in the back bench were giggling when they saw Lee Jin. A girl named Ren said that the teacher's nickname is crazy witch. Her husband is working in physics department in this university and he is very strict

After a long lecture she said," Class dismissed, take a break". Three of them decided to go to the canteen. On their way they saw two girls Kaite and Erie from another section being bullied by two senior girls. Kaite was beautiful and wearing a velvet dress. Her looks are confident and she has cat eyes and her hair is silky. Eri was a bit tall and was wearing a crop top with jeans and she is looking a bit shy and has curly long hair. Seniors are asking them to carry their bags from university to their home and also they need to buy snacks for them with their money. But Kaite saw Mia, Mi So and Yue Ran coming. Kaite said that Mia's house is near your house and it is easy for her to bring your bags and her class is next to you so teachers may think that you know each other so no one doubts you. Listening to this, the senior girls left them and called Mia and the other two girls. Having no other option they need to listen to them. After they left, Mi So said that it was due to Kaite. Mia said that she doesn't know where those senior girls live and not even their class. Yue Ran said, "Let's not worry about it, we can find later." They bought snacks for them and searched their class and gave snacks to them.

During lunch break, they paid for a lunch pass. And started eating and cursing the two girls from another section. Mia saw the two girls sitting with three boys in which one of them is Tae oh and said to Mi So and Yue Ran. They thought that five of them were idiots and started to get frustrated by the sight of them. Evening, they decided to ask the senior girls about their address. Listening to this, Mr. Obedient (Kyoshi) said that he knew their address. He gave their address. It is near the house of Yue Ran. She said that she will drop it in their house. They packed their bags and while leaving they discussed some important points in all classes. They saw the idiot five group(Mia named them) coming out too. All of them laughed when they saw us. But we simply ignored them. Mia reached home. Her mom asked, "How is your first day?" Mia said, "oookkk". And also said, "I got two friends, who are very good at studies". I ate dinner and wrote about my first day in my diary. I decided to ask for pocket money as I need to buy snacks for the seniors.

My Batch

It's been one week since I started going to university. Crazy witch's class is the best class ever. She always cracks jokes and picks on sleepy heads. Noah, a boy from last bench who is not interested in studies, always causes disturbance in class, mainly in Mr.Strict's (Alex, phy sir)class. In his class, Joker(Noah) always needs to stand on the last bench. Joker wrote a love letter to another teacher with the name of Alex. Noah was forced to write a self-criticism letter but wrote a fairy tale(Little Mermaid), Alex sir as mermaid. And displayed in the notice board and got suspended for a couple of days.

We spent most of our free time in our library. And sometimes Kaite's batch used to come for borrowing books.

On Monday the two senior girls came to us and said that from today, there is no need to buy them snacks or carry their bags. Cutie pie(Mi So) asked why. Seniors saw Lee Jin's face and left silently. I went to ask him what had happened? Lee Jin gave a nasty look like before and turned towards Chi Won. Chi Won said ,”Mr.Obedient asked us to do so. Yesterday ,He came to us and requested to solve the problem. After you left they said they are doing this for fun. We recorded this conversation and blackmailed that we will show this to the crazy witch. “After seeing this they said that from today, we won't bully them. And you know what happened after that. And Lee Jin said he forgave you for pushing him. I said,” I made no mistake”. Who is he to forgive me for the mistake I did not make. Four of us exchanged looks. Lee Jin came and said, “let's be good friends”. Now we have become a team of five.

My First Exam

Crazy witch entered the class holding a notice, and attached it on the notice board. She said, "We are going to conduct weekly exams on Saturdays. And this week we have an exam on Saturday. Some people shouted no, some people gave no reaction and some people were exchanging looks and some were asking notes from other students. The syllabus is on the notice board and we need to check it after the class. Our batch (Me, cutie pie, bookworm, Lee Jin, Chi Won) decided to study according to a time table after college in the library. Bookworm wrote a time table. We headed to the library together and saw 'THEIR' batch(Eri, Feng-li, Tae oh, Min Ho).

They sat near our bench. They are boasting that Feng-li will be first in the coming exam. We said that Yue-Ran can beat him.

We practiced a lot for the exam as we don't want to accept defeat. We even practiced in our free times. and of course Kiyoshi clarified some of our doubts and helped us in preparing notes. He is such a nice guy who helps everyone in the class. He even tried to solve our problem with senior girls before.

Lee Jin, I hate him the most. He always tries to pick on me and he is always pointing out my mistakes as if he is very good at studies. But, he is not the best. Instead, Yue-ran was.

He always makes me arrange his books, clean his desk and I also need to fill his bottle, buy him snacks(of course with his money). I am just helping him as a friend but he is making me do many things for him. And also he fights with me for no reason. He made a bet on me that I will fail in the coming exam. If he wins I should help him with whatever he says as he helped me in the preparation. I did not agree. But at last I did so, as he is nagging me and even shouting in class to make me agree. It does not make any change. As I am doing the same now.

Today is Saturday morning. Exam is in the afternoon. They gave some time for self preparation. Kiyoshi is seriously revising his notes. Bookworm buried her face in books and sat on the last bench. Lee Jin and Chi Won are preparing together.

I was observing everyone's reaction. Some are sleeping, some are taking pics and posting their reactions about their first exam in 'we chat' moments. I want to know what 'THEIR' batch is doing. So I went out and peeked in their classroom. All of them are preparing together. Looks like they are friends from childhood. I always see them together.

During lunch break no one uttered a word among us, everyone was reading. We sat in our seats according to seating arrangements. In our class, cutie pie, Eri are there along with me. Kiyoshi, Min Ho and Noah are also there in our class. Noah wrote a note on board that anyone can ask him questions and he'll answer them. Invigilator entered the classroom. Mr. Strict gave a shocking entry. Noah's face is like a rotten potato. But remained silent and covered his face.

Exam duration is 3 hours. After 1h, Alex sir left the class and called someone to buy him a coffee. Meanwhile first row students started sharing answers. Students from the last benches are trying hard to peep into the answer sheets of students sitting before them. I'm in the third row at the centre. I solved only one subject. Noah is answering every question by seeing in the workbook. But according to me, only a few questions are from material. Min Ho is helping a girl who sat before him. Alex sir entered the classroom. Everyone turned their faces(including me).

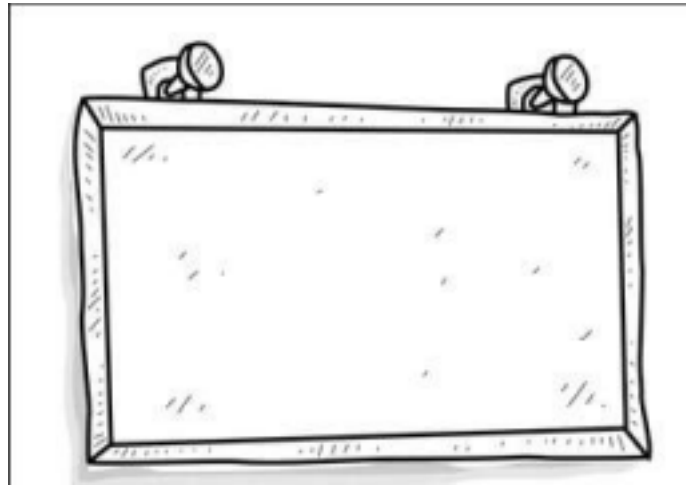

It is almost 12:30pm, another half an hour left. I almost completed my exam. Then Alex sir started filling details of students in a paper. Noah started taking empty pieces of paper from his pencil box. He wrote some answers in them and started throwing them to students who ever asked him before. There are no more papers left in his box. So he started showing some signals with his hand. Suddenly, when throwing his last paper, it went to the bench in which sir was there instead of going to the next bench. Sir saw the paper and asked who threw this? Noah, who sat on that bench said that he didn't know. Alex turned towards Noah. He said, "Sir, How can you expect me to answer? I was almost absent for more than a week." Alex threw the paper into the dustbin and gave a warning. I solved the remaining questions and verified the answers. Again I started observing the students. Everyone started sharing answers. Noah is seriously verifying the answers he wrote. At 1pm sir said "Time is up". He collected our papers and left the room. All of us left the exam hall discussing the answers.

When we entered the room, we saw bookworm stamping the floor and cursing someone. Chi Won is telling her to calm down. We asked her what happened. She said "Tae oh sat in front of her and he is saying answers to all girls but whenever a boy asks him he is giving signals to them to ask me. Everyone is calling me and asking for answers and not allowing me to write my exam. Invigilator shouted at me many times." I said that we already know that they are idiots. So just leave them. We need to teach them a good lesson. Wait till then. They are really irritating us. I'll come with a nice plan. The rest of the day she spent cursing Tae Oh. I think she needs some time to leave this. She studied really well. I can understand her feelings

. We decided to watch a movie in crazy witch's class as usual Jin started irritating me. He asked for my notes but crazy witch shouted at him saying that he shouldn't copy my notes and made me stand up the entire hour till Jin completed his notes. I begged him to write his notes. Actually, Jin writes his notes very well but he loves irritating me. So, he purposely asks for my notes in her class and always disturbs the class by borrowing my things. After the class, he made a betcha with me : If he scores more marks than me, I should complete the task whatever and if I score more marks than him, I need to listen whatever he says because he helped me in my preparation for the exam for which a gave a top to bottom strange look with a meaning to say get lost and don't make stupid betchas like this with me anymore but he kept on nagging me and started shouting in class to make me accept the bet.

The next day, results are out. When we reached the notice board, there are, many people standing there. So, we need to wait for a while to verify our scores. Kaite's batch came towards us giving a strange look and left. After 15 min, all the people near the notice board left and we saw the results. Bookworm scored first rank and Feng-Li was second. Third is Mi-So and I'm fourth. Eri is fifth and Kaite is sixth. Seventh is Jin and eighth is Chi-Won. Ninth is Min-Ho and Tae-Oh is the last (tenth rank). Seeing this, Bookworm danced crazily. Now she is a bit happy. Kiyoshi scored eleventh. We went to the class and congratulated him. He stared at me for a second and gave a smile. In every class, teachers congratulated who scored Top Ten. I saw Kiyoshi reading sincerely about his eleventh rank with the hope that he could grab the Top ten in the next exam. As you know, I should listen to that bastard as I accepted his stupid bet. In the evening, we went to Jin's House to play in a playground as it was near to his house. The playground is as large as a football field. We played dodgeball. Jin's playing really well. After half an hour, it was my turn to play. After a minute. The ball slightly missed my leg. Jin and Chi-Won arguin'

That the ball touched my leg. But QT-pie, bookworm said it just missed my leg. After a while Jin said, "Ok let's continue". I played. But Jin started hitting me really hard. Now I understood why he let it go. He is really strong. The place which was hit by the ball left rashes. I don't know what I did to him. He always loves to hurt me. The pain is increasing. So I gave signals to bookworm. After receiving the ball, She threw it and I stood motionless, hoping the ball would not miss the target. The ball hit me, but gently. I thanked her. I washed my wounds. Bookworm disinfected it. Mi So scolded Jin for hurting me. He said, "Why are you taking it so seriously? I just did it for fun.". "Is it really fun? hurting your best friend huh!. You are so mean to her. And you chi-won, he is like this because you are supporting him. You know he is wrong but still you are encouraging him. How is it funny to bully your friend? I'm not able to tolerate this anymore. From the first day of our college you are like this to her. Do you think she has no friends?". I dragged her from there as I saw Jin's mom calling us.

His house is sufficient for four people with ventilation. The hall is a medium-sized one with some photos of their family. There is a brown shaded sofa. We sat on it. Jin's mom bought us drinks. We drank it as we were thirsty by playing out. His mom looked a bit young, thin and short. Unlike him, she is very calm and pleasant. He introduced us. I'm the last one to introduce. She stared at me for more than two seconds and quickly turned her face as she noticed that I'm observing her. Before leaving the house she turned towards me and tried to ask something but stopped. We left. Chi Won said he will drop them. I said I can go alone. As I'm already used to the roads there. Jin came running towards me saying that he will drop me. After what happened in the evening he is still saying this. I said no. Literally how can I Accept this. I can't believe him. He may push me down or scare me with dogs. I have a dog phobia. This is because when I was young I used to have a pet named Sony. I grew it with my friend. But a person who is my friend's father killed it as it tried to hurt her brother. I was really upset and cried for many days. From then I got dog phobia. I don't think Jin knows this. I'll keep it from him. I don't want to give him a chance to bully me. I shouted that I didn't need his help and left. But he followed me till I reached my home. What's gotten into him? Why is he following me? I have no interest in asking him this. I silently went inside my house. Mom is really angry. I begged her. I ate dinner. When I decided to sleep, mom entered my room and said grandparents are coming tomorrow and left. I am really happy. It's been a long time since I saw them. No need to go to college tomorrow. I watched a movie and slept.

I woke up late. I went to the station with my dad to pick them up. They look the same just like last summer. We reached home. I chatted with them for a while. I told them about my college life. Grandma bought my favorite snacks from her village. I used to like those candies a lot when I was young. I can be at peace 'cause Jin is not around me. Grandma saw those rashes on my hand and enquired about me. I said, "It's nothing serious, I just fell down while running in the playground". She enquired about my studies. I said that everything was fine. They will leave in the evening. After eating lunch, they slept for a while. I returned to my room to complete my homework. I want to know what's going on in college. I really miss my friends. I texted in our group. No one replied. My dad dropped my grandparents at the station. I asked them to stay for two more days. They said no. As they like village life.

BUZZER

I woke up early today. As I miss college so much. When I reached there, I noticed something strange. Everyone is immersed in looking at their cell phones. I peeped into some phones. Everyone is looking at the same app. I had never seen that app before. It is an app with a dark background in which some codes are written on it. They are very small and hard to understand. When I reached the class, Qtpie was already there. She quickly grabbed my phone and started doing something. Bookworm entered the class with Chi Won. I asked her about the app which I saw before. She said it is an app named BUZZER for the students. This app is only for students and is against school rules.

Mi So installed this app on my phone. "This app is for students and the news on campus,” said bookworm. Anyone can post in this app. The strange thing is we are unable to create more than one account.

“Who created this”, I asked. “Anonymous” they said together. Everyone installed this yesterday. I thought this is the reason no one replied to my texts. Jin entered the class with a red t-shirt. I heard someone saying Prince Charming is too handsome. It’s just a lie(according to me). In my eyes he is a cold-hearted freak and a narcissist. Those girls are really blind. We sat in our respective positions as the bell rang. Everyone in the campus started checking buzzer between classes for updates. There is nothing much interesting news in the app. News about the birds flying in our campus, Clubs formed like swimming, basketball, etc....

The same busy schedule this day. Crazy witch is giving loads of homework. Jin made me write his homework also. I have to write. That lazy brat.... Whatever it is, it is a good practice for me. I need to sleep a bit late. That’s it. Someone with a user ID named Love God started posting some funny stories on puppy love. No one knows whether they are real stories or fake. But they are interesting. I really like love stories even though I don’t have a positive impression on love. Those stories are simple but funny. Love god started writing it as a series. Every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Sunday comes a new chapter. It takes two hours to complete a chapter. We are not sure about who is writing such stories. Maybe someone like Noah, who has a lot of free time, writes such things.

Everyone is busy with their work. Alex sir came in with a new student. “Attention! Everyone, he is the new transfer student” introduce yourself. Hi friends I’m Gao Lin, I hope we get along well. Alex sir left. He sat on the back of Jin's bench. Chi won turned back and said, "I am chi won". Jin, as usual staring him with a cold expression on his face." You are scaring him Jin" said Mi So." No problem", said Gao Lin and gave a pleasant smile. Bookworm told him to install buzzer app. This new student is neither interesting nor boring. He is just so-so. I don't think he is good at studies. His note books are like some paper waste taken out of a waste disposal truck. His dressing style is also average. Good looking. The class started. Lazily we opened our books and started reading. Today is a booring day. After college we went to a Karaoke club. Bookworm sang beautifully and Mi So sang like a crow. Jin said that he needs a check up for his ears. Feeling Embarrassed, we stopped singing. We said goodbyes. Chi won said that he would drop them. That idiot(Jin) followed me till my house even though I told him not to. What on earth is this? He hates me, bullies me but thinks about my safety. This is driving me nuts. After giving a lot of thought to this I simply left it... As I can't understand his intention.

Sunday... Thank God no exam today. I dropped a message in our group chat inviting them to come to my house. We decided to meet at 5pm. Jin came at exactly 4:59pm. I'm shocked. I never thought he was so punctual. Maybe that is the reason when I first bumped into him and he was angry that I wasted his time. Whatever.. He is an idiot. Remaining three came after a few minutes. I invited them inside. Mom gave water. I took them to the balcony. I like fresh air. I grew some plants. While we were discussing the games to play, Jin took a flowerpot and uprooted it saying that he loves plants. The roots came out along with soil and fell on his new white shoes. We laughed. I should have recorded it but missed the chance.” Jin, not only you love plants but plants also love you, see it bowed to you”, said Mi So. While we were leaving the house my neighbour, childhood friend Li Yuibing came. So I told them to wait at the gate. I introduced him. He asked me who they were. My friends in college. His mom asked him to bring me home for dinner as she will cook pork ribs, my favourite. I said yes. I ate many times at his home. He walked me till the gate. I introduced him. He also wanted to play with us. Everyone else except Jin said yes. He seemed to be not pleased with Li’s presence. We played badminton. Me, Mi So, Li are one team. And remaining are the other team. Actually, I’m not good at playing this. My cousin taught me. He pampers me a lot. I never played it seriously. Today we are playing for 100. Now I have to play it seriously. If not, Jin makes fun of me.

No need to worry much. Li is here to save me. I told him about how Jin treats me. Li is always nice to me. He’ll help me. No worries. I played the game chatting with Li and Mi So. Jin threw the cock on my face forcefully while I’m laughing at the joke Li made. I got really frustrated. But controlled it as it may not be intentional. He did that many times. I lost my temper and came out of my court towards him. I asked him the reason. He did not say sorry but he said slowly “why are you exaggerating? It’s just a game or are you showing off because of Li”. I beat him with my badminton racket. After beating him seven times, on the eighth attempt he stopped me with his hand” stop beating me with a badminton racket, okay!!! or else I'll hug you." Listening to this I stopped beating him and returned to my place. They asked what happened and I said ,“Nothing”. I don't know what to say. I continued to play and our team lost the match. We returned to our respective homes. What the heck. What does that mean “I'll hug you”. Holy crap!!!

* * *

It's already 10 pm. I'm unable to sleep. Why did I say “I'll hug you”. Hugging her?? Rubbish. I just stopped her as she is flirting with Li. It's not good for girls. Why am I thinking about her? She is disgusting.. Really disgusting. AAAAH...What's wrong with me? Whatever, let's sleep. Put her away from my mind. I'll face her tomorrow as nothing happened.

* * *

I'm successfully able to avoid Jin as if nothing happened. I never brought up this topic after that. Love god stopped posting love stories but a new ID names Love World started posting stories in Buzzer. They are not funny but looking like real love stories. Simple. I observed that Chi Won is too good towards Mi So. She is cute, warm and lovable. Where as Bookworm is perfect and strict. I'm silly and stupid. Nearly at 4:30pm a notification came in Buzzer. It is like this.

Hello guys!!!. While I was passing through the corridor I heard someone saying about a traditional system in our college. It is about business. Every year some Freshers need to conduct some games to play for seniors as well as their friends. We also need to conduct some games to continue our tradition. So for more to now wait till the end of the day.

Seeing this message we decided to conduct such games as we have only descriptive exams. But not objective. It doesn't take much time to prepare. It's almost 5:30pm but Alex sir has not stopped his lecture. In his class we need to pay attention like "holding our soul in our palms". He stopped teaching. We started packing our bags.

He got frustrated. You are the future citizens of our country...But unable to spend at least 1 min after the class, He said in a malicious tone. And started giving us a lecture about his merits and how teachers praised him when he was young. And so on....It's a complete booooring lecture. We are waiting for the new update in Buzzer but he isn't allowing us to leave the class. Noah, our crazy kid stood up..

As a great teacher you know the importance of physical exercise. So excuse us sir. As a good citizen of our country I want to become an all rounder. I'll do laps on the ground. If you allow me to go out. First you say the definition of thermodynamics, then I'll leave you but also our entire class.

Meanwhile Jin stood up and said sir we need to take a break so let alone Noah say that definition. Or give him imposition till he remembers the definition. It's fair.. Isn't it? That means rat is always like that. Ah! Whatever I want to know about that so-called business.

We reached our favorite place in our college garden A bench under a half century old Neem tree. I, Mi So, Yue Ran like to sit on the bench. Those two monkeys like to play with trees and smile at passer bys. I opened my phone. I it an old model phone. With a pink and shiny phone case on which the word princess written on it with a large bold font and upon it “dad’s” written in a small font. All of My things are girly and cute. Which Jin hates the most so I never tried to change it as it annoys him.. He told me to read the notification loud.

Sorry for the late guys. I have to deal with some other things.

This business is usually conducted by a group of 10 or more people

These are usually conducted in this period as we have a lot of free time. We can plan any game which is funny. We can start this from Monday.

Imp steps: Prepare something funny. Form a group. Create a page in this app.

Get ready to form beautiful memories of your first year.

“We need to do something interesting” Let’s form a team with us and by tomorrow everyone must come with 3 game plans. I’ll decide on a name for our group and we can form a page on Sunday. Today is Wednesday. Go home and think about something. Tomorrow and the day after that we will select ten games and on Sunday we need to go and buy the items. “Hey Jin, didn't you see the notice? A group needs 10 people... we are only five”. Our brains are equivalent to two people. Aren’t they? Maybe your brain isn’t.. Right? Said Jin. I said but,.. Jin shouted and said no but’s no escaping you must listen to me remember your bet right? You awful rat.. I said yes. I’m not Interested in picking up a fight with him so I agreed...

I never saw Jin so excited. I need to find 3 funny games. Think..Mia thinks. I took out a book from my study table. Funny, exciting and short games.. I know a game. It is played with cards. I need to prepare cards with some story titles. And create a questionnaire based on them. First game is fixed. Next..... Darts. And the last one, meanwhile mom entered the room “Dinner is ready Mia” said mom.

“coming mom”. Mom and dad are discussing something seriously. I ate my dinner listening to their conversation. Mom is blushing. Her white face is turning pink and dad’s ears are also turning red. Mumma and appa “why are you blushing” I asked them out of curiosity

“You don’t know, we are discussing the day we met. It is a cloudy day. In the month of September. I went to an art gallery with my friends. It is a big gallery with an aquarium conducted every year in the same place and time.. We usually visit the aquarium after visiting the gallery. Then I met your mom. We will never forget the day.

At the corner of the aquarium there is a game played by a couple. They give us 1 minute of time. We need to remember the positions of the words written on a canvas. With the help of your partner's instructions, We need to place an arrow," Said dad. I wanted to play the game but I have no girlfriend. While I decided to leave, a young and beautiful woman stood In front of me asking me to play a game with her. As a gentle man I accepted her request. She was blind folded and I gave her instructions. We almost placed everything correctly and won a prize. A couple phone cases. It is only a single pair in the entire world. She called her friend. She said there is an emergency and asked her to wait for a while. I don't want her to leave. Love at first sight. Mustering up a lot of courage I asked her name. "I'm miss Fushun. " said your mom. I asked for her number. She hesitated for a while and finally gave her phone number. I gave her my number. Girls are strange creatures. I texted her first and she said, I don't remember you. But finally remembered me. We dated for 1 year and married in september. If her friend had not asked her to wait I would never have met your mom. Thanks to her. I owe her one. Hey I got my third game. Great' not need to worry about Jin. I wonder what kind of games they come up with...

The classroom is as usual noisy. Mi so entered the classroom I asked her about the games she thought. She said nothing, my mind isn't working, let's decide later. "I don't have time to complete my homework," said Yue, hastily arranging her glasses.

Maybe I was the only one who took those rat's(it's his nickname) words seriously. I must be crazy. Jin is chasing Chi Won. Panting they sat in their places. He started shouting at won. " You are not at all taking my words seriously, are you my friend" He turned towards us. Mi So and ran ran(Yue Ran) together and said," hmm... er... NO. sorry.." but I said ya, I came up with 3 games.

Oh! really! That's my girl, said Jin, smiling. This is the first time I saw him smiling. Wait... when did I become 'his girl'. I said it a bit loud, only Mi could listen. She did not speak, seeing Jin's long face. Rest of the day we were terrified to speak with him.

No one bought that topic in the following two days. Maybe he felt resentful that no one encouraged him.

A VERY LONG SUNDAY

10 pm on Saturday.

Jin posted a message(Kinda warning) in our group

JIN:

hear by I announce,

Everyone should come to my house at 6am in the morning tomorrow. You can eat breakfast and lunch in my home if you want No exams in these two months . No excuses. If anyone one is absent I'll make sure that they pay for what they did.

What's with his attitude? Is this how he invites his friends to hang out? How rude.

That psycho. Do I really have to go...? Or else I'll be the only one to go there like before.

After a few minutes, I got a call from a cutie, it's a group call. Ran ran and the cutie said, "Hi" nervously. I asked whether they were going or not. We called you to ask the same. I said, "we should better go". "He is very serious now," said the cutie. So let's meet at the brew shop where we usually meet. Our favorite coffee shop is beside a grocery store at the end of my lane. I called mom and said, "I'm hanging out with my friends in the morning tomorrow". "Cook breakfast on your own. I'm not going to prepare breakfast early even on Sundays," said mom.

I woke up lazily and for a split second my body did not allow me to wake up.. I wore a white t-shirt and a dark blue skirt, my favorite combination. And prepared my breakfast keeping in mind that Jin is punctual. I reached the 'Expresso coffee' shop within 10 minutes.

By the time I reached the coffee shop I saw cutie and ran already sitting there on a table near the reception. It is a dim semicircular room. It is the only coffee shop in our area that opens early in the morning. It consists of colorful benches and chairs which are especially designed to attract teens. A nice place for hangouts. As usual the place is small and cozy.

Cutie is in a hot pink outfit and Ran ran is wearing a green top and blue jeans. She loves coffee more than anyone else. Her eyes are glittering behind her glasses due to the candle light on the table.

She waved her hand as she noticed me. They are calm and happy unlike the last night I spoke to them. Cutie said she needed to apologize to him for neglecting him. Don't worry. He is our friend, he'll understand. I said, patting the cutie on her back. All right let's go.

We walked for nearly half an hour discussing the games. Cutie suggested a game with balloons. Bookworm suggested a quiz. We reached his home at 6:15 am. I knocked on the doorbell. We heard footsteps approaching. I imagined how funny it looks when Jin opens the door with a t-shirt and three fourths. But Chi Won answered the door and welcomed us. We sat on the same sofa I saw when I first came to his house. I think his parents are not here as there is no sight of them. He went inside and came out with a bottle of drinks and glasses along with Jin.

Jin is dressed in white from top to bottom.

strange outfit. I thought.

He stared at me for a second. Are you going out for a date with Li Yi Bing? He said in a most disgusting tone. I warned you not to make any other plans. Didn't I? Oh sorry! But I already promised him that I would meet. I lied. He looked as if he almost wanted to beat me. Instead he said 'whatever, just get back to our business.

I thought it was none of his business whom I met on a date. What on earth is he talking about?! Let's forget it, we already know that stupidity is his birthright. Now, let's finalize six games. I don't think we can make more games with our friendly cooperation, said Jin sarcastically. Jin handed each of us a paper and asked us to write down the games we thought. After half an hour, he collected our papers. First, as usual he checked my paper. I wrote down the three games I thought about before. Bookworm, wrote quiz and balloon shooting, Chi won decided to conduct a video game, Mi So wrote the Balloon game we discussed before. He finalized these games, I don't think he really has other ideas, Bookworm started writing a schedule, Mi So is doing a live stream about how to doll up beautifully if we have less time, Maybe she got the idea from the situation, she encountered today's morning, Chi-Won started playing video games on Ps-4 and occasionally checking what cutie is doing, I was staring at them and watching other moments in we-chat.

I came to my senses when someone grabbed my hand and dragged me into the kitchen, he is Jin. Wait! By the way, who gave him the right to grab my hand, That idiot!! Don't bother, I said to myself, as I know Jin is rude. He quickly brought bread and Nutella from the fridge and handed me them, showing the toaster. Now, I understand his intention. He needed a servant to do this, so he dragged me in.

We took them to the living room, ran-ran almost finished the schedule, Chi-Won and Mi So were chit chatting about a game near the window, and each of us took a piece. I said I won't eat as I ate the same breakfast today morning. I didn't poison it, Drop THE ACT AND EAT, said Jin, stuffing a piece of it into my mouth. Bookworm gave us a list:

1.Balloons, Large, water. 2.Target(darts) 3.Darts 4.Colour papers 5.NotesBooks etc...

I asked Chi won and Miso to buy them but Mi So said that she is not interested in going out, Jin interrupted us and said, "Rest easy, I will go with my piggy". Giving me a funny look, I AM NOT A PIG, I said bluntly, "I never said that it is you but you responded so you accepted that you're a pig, come with me my piggy", said he, heading out. We went to a nearby stationery shop, a 10 minutes short walk, none uttered a word, as if we were strangers.

He said that he wanted to buy some snacks while we were entering the shop. He started buying all kinds of fruit juices he saw in the shop. Maybe he is too tall because he drinks fruit juices a lot ?! How many drinks should I need to have to reach his height? Maybe I need to drink all the juices present in this town. Ahh just forget it, I know, I won't grow up too tall like he thought I drank. I asked him out of curiosity but he said, "Our shorty will become fatty, if you do so".

I decided to help him to save some time. I bought a strawberry flavored drink and put it in the trolley. "I don't like that flavor", said Jin, placing the drink on the rack. "Why? Have you ever tasted it?", I asked. He said no. "Try after going home, it tastes fantastic", and I put that drink again in the trolley. We fought for a while about that drink but we stopped when we noticed a part timer threw us a nasty look. Finally, he allowed me to put it in the trolley.

A notification buzz rang, I took it out and that message is from li.

hey let's go out for lunch, my treat..

but I said I'll eat at home .

IK. Our parents went out to a temple.

Ok then .

By the way, where are you??

I went to a crazy rat's home with my friends.

Send me your location. I'll pick you up...

ipm...

And then he went offline. When I turned my face from the phone, I noticed that Jin was peeking into my phone.

Oho! Then you're really going for a date and what's with that name misty and am neither short nor crazy why am I a crazy rat, unlike someone who stood beside me looks exactly like an ant. I told you that it isn't a date, and we're not what you are thinking. He has been calling me 'misty' since primary school, I said, raising my voice. Oh! Is that so? Let's wait and see, he said, giving me a smirk.

When we reached the counter, he asked me to pay for the strawberry drink. Why would I pay for your drink? I'm not drinking it, right?, I said. I really don't know that you're this stingy, I don't like that drink but I was forced by you to drink it and I thought it was your treat, so drop the act and pay.

We stared at each other for a few seconds as if we were mortal enemies and we came to senses when the cashier asked us whether we were going to pay or not. I paid for it. When we were leaving I heard her saying something that sounded like, "Foolish little enemies, wasting my time, My shift is almost done!".

He gave me all the things we bought. and asked me to carry them. You said I'm a rat. Have you ever seen a rat carrying things? Said Jin. How can an ant carry things which even rats can't carry? I said innocently. Oye! Dummy, don't you know that an ant carries a weight which is twice the mass of its own weight. So you carry.

I'm a girl. How can he let me carry things? Anyhow I'm not a girl in his eyes. I'll think of it as a little exercise. Come on Mia you can do this.

After a short walk we reached his house. He took things in my hands and ran into the lift. He closed the door and I stopped it but he is closing it again. I tried to Stop but he is stronger. I have to climb the steps. For every step I felt like someone was dragging me from behind. Maybe it's the feeling of losing to him. I would rather climb Mt.Everest than climb these stairs now.

Honestly, he is a nightmare with a handsome face... Maybe he is a slytherin. I'm a Hufflepuff. Bookworm is Ravenclaw. Mi So and Chi Won are Gryffindor. I'm not sure that I'm correct. It's just my assumption.

We prepared according to the bookworm's instructions. It's 12:30 pm now. We are almost done with the process. Later we need to prepare questions and need to fix some rules. Jin brought cool drinks. We relaxed for a while. Jin ordered a take out. He looked at me and said I'm going to order for you also, so no need to go out. Doorbell rang. I opened the door it is Li.

How do you know my floor?" Jin asked, pretending as if he was surprised. Oh! You are really famous here. A girl said. It's a simple condition. I swore that I won't tell your place to any other girl. Poor Girl! isn't she? She doesn't know that you have three pretty girls in your home.

Only two Jin said correcting him. I don't think Mia is a girl. If she is she is definitely not pretty.. Not pretty? She is the most beautiful girl I've ever seen, said Li. Bookworm interrupted saying, "If you please stop discussing that topic I can read my book in peace." We left saying bye to everyone except Jin.

You don't have to support me. I said, ``Take a helmet from Li. You are my friend, of course I need to support you. He is too mean. Let's ignore him, I said. He doesn't deserve respect. Why are you always supporting him? He is a bit crossing his limits.

Well, I told you that he helped me before. So.. It is not good to fight with him. But you never asked for his help. He voluntarily did it, don't behave as if you owe him one.

Then I can take revenge on my own. He said.

No you don't have to.

Give me his QQ ID. Let me play with him for a while.

Fine, I'll give you.

Do you still remember the place we used to play when we were young? Asked Li.

Yes. I miss that place. I said.

Today, I'm taking you there. I heard from one of my friends that a new restaurant opened there.

Thank you Li. No thanks between us. He said.

'Cultural Cuisines' I read the name. It is written in maroon with white background. It is a not too big, not too small restaurant. I saw Kaite there. Not as a customer but as a waitress. She saw us but pretended as if she had never seen me before. I did the same. I actually enjoy eating with n=him. He is really funny. Eating for the first time in his house with his parents when I was a child is my best memory. It is a friendly family. I love hanging out with them.

I wonder who will become his girlfriend. He is romantic and caring. I asked him whether he had a girlfriend.

Do you want to be my girlfriend? But sorry I already have a girlfriend. He said laughing hard. Be serious. Yes or no. I asked

Yes I have. But it's been only two days and I never found time to tell you this. By the way, you are the first one to know this. He said giving orders to the waiter. Really? Who is that unlucky girl to love this wimpy kid.

What? Wimp? No I'm not.

Is that so? Then who hid under his bed crying for hours when someone bullied him, Said I.

Fine, I agree with this. But no more. I changed, said Li.

Waiter served the dishes. We are discussing his love story. Paid the bill. While leaving we saw Feng Li. Probably, he came to pick up katie. He is such a good lad who takes a lot of care about his friends. I misunderstood him.

We walked in the street remembering the sweet moments we shared there when we were kids. Visited our favorite shop. The Aunty, who runs that shop is a kind woman, we like her a lot. So we paid a visit. I took some photos. Still you haven't changed your habit of taking photos wherever you go, said Li.

When I reached Jin's home, he was cleaning the dishes. Mi So whispered in my ear and asked whether my date went well. I told you it isn't a date. And he already has a girlfriend.

Fine babe, got it. She said sarcastically.

We did the remaining procedure.

At 4pm, buzzer sent a notification from the same anonymous user. hey guys,

The groups who wanted to conduct the games need to fill the application below.

The remaining people will vote for the teams. The team with the highest votes will be the winner.

and it will be the only eligible team to conduct this fest. So choose it wise. This is our tradition. Don't neglect teams application selection

-a student among us.

We opened the application and entered the answers according to the questions given. We decided to go home as we completed the work. While leaving Jin's face turned a bit confusing when he looked at his mobile.

Li came to pick me up.

SHEETAL

Our classroom is clean and calm as usual. While I was chit-chatting with MiSo and Yue Ran, Buzzer sent a notification that results of the voting will be out by 11 am today. Actually Jin will be more eager than anyone else.

Jin entered the classroom. I expected that he would ask us whether we saw the news but he entered with a disgusting look on his face. No idea what's going on with him. Then came a notification in his phone, listening that his expression became worse than before. What's wrong with you?, asked Mi So. No reply from him. Yue Ran continued reading her book and just ignored us. Ahh! She is always like that but we got used to her. Sometimes, we wonder if we are speaking to an emotionless person. She is kinda a machine. Alright she is friendly and a good girl.

It's a crazy witch's class now. She rarely comes on time and ends the class whenever she wants. On the other hand, her husband (Alex sir) is punctual. Today's topic is Equilibrium. She asked Noah to define it. He said, "Equilibrium is something a reaction does when both sides apply too much concentration on it. Well, we can say, 'I am at equilibrium.'".

How so?, she asked.

Cause' I am like equilibrium. Who reads nothing because both parents and teachers concentrate only on 'my' studies, knowing that they can't change me. Same goes for the equilibrium. Whatever you do. Either reaction or product side changes momentarily but eventually attains equilibrium. So, I am in equilibrium. Agreed? If you please excuse me, I need to rest and he sat saying that he said too much.

Well, I am glad that you know what you said is too much. I would really appreciate it if you used some technical terms to describe the same thing as using your own imagination. She turned back and continued her lesson.

It's unlike her. I thought she would go nuts or I expected her to throw a tantrum to shut his mouth.

No one expects the other's way of seeing things.

As usual Kiyoshi raised his hand and answered. 'Precisely' is her common dialogue. She said that and appreciated him and signaled him to sit. Kiyoshi reads the lesson before the teacher explains it. It's natural that teachers love to make this a great deal. Literally, I must agree that he is talented. Strange thing is his marks are always lower than us. But, Yue Ran spends most of her life with books. It's isn't strange to score maximum marks.

It's almost 11. Everyone is looking at their mobiles sneakily. Crazy witch hates the sound of notification. Whenever she hears it, she confiscates their mobile and gives it to Mr.Dean. He is hard to persuade. Everyone addresses him as a demon instead of Mr.Dean. His eyes scare us away. We need to beg him to satisfy his mean temper. And then we can get back our phones. Even Noah is scared of him. He never looks at him and behaves as if he went partially blind to notice him.

Students started refreshing the page several times but no update. Having noticed that something is bothering us she said 'class dismissed' and left calmly. She is probably in a good mood today.

Then I took out my phone and saw the message. ``Results are out," someone shouted from the back. Chi Won took out the mobile and checked the result. He read it out so that only we can hear.

Well guys, I have to say that this year our tradition has changed a bit . We have two winners

now. 1. Kaite

2. Jin

Let's give them the honor to conduct games in this academic year. And I hope you won't let us down. All the best. Before that you have to choose a name for your team.. And games will officially begin from Wednesday. Also you have to create a logo to represent your team.. Best wishes. Bye.

Jin is neither excited nor disappointed. His reaction is the same from the morning. I asked him what the heck is wrong with him. It's nothing. he said. Whatever. It's really rare for him to shut his mouth. Finally there is something that makes him shut his mouth. I must enjoy this.

Classes are over and we sat on the bench which is our favorite place. No one sits there except us. It's in the end of our school grounds. I think hardly anyone noticed that there is such a place in our University.

Jin spoke up at last. Let's name our team. He said.

Something related to nature. I said.

Starry night? Mi So suggested.

Remaining gave a disapproving look.

'Dazzling stars' Jin said.

Let's make it final Yue ran said now looking up from the book she is reading. We all agreed.

Now, what about logos? Won asked.

Well, let's meet Catherine. From Kaite's class. I heard that she is talented in this.

It's better to take her help. Remember we have only one day left. Mi-So texted her and replied very fast. 6 pm. In front of my design class.

Chi Won and Bookworm left as she needed to read and he had something to deal with. As it was on her way home he said he would drop her.

We waited at the front gate and she came out with a couple of girls whose hands locked together. They left when she reached us. She is pretty. Her eyes are the most attractive eyes I've ever seen.

Prince charming! Are you here for my help? What do you want? She asked, eyes fixed on Jin. Though you are not that handsome. She said in a low voice so I could hear it and winked at me. He is struck and OH! NO he is BLUSHING.

Am I born to witness this? I thought. Cutie interrupted this awkward silence. Bless her. Or else witnessing this for more time may drive me crazy. Well, we are here to ask if you could create a logo for us.

I want it before tomorrow's lunch break. He said in a bossy tone. If you please excuse me I'm leaving. I don't like to help someone who orders me around. Now his expression is like an empty balloon.

She filled a lot of air in a balloon and punctured it with a needle.

Ok then. Please do it for us. He asked at last. Carefully picking up words to make sure to decrease the intensity of embarrassment. He may have understood that he can't create a logo all by himself. She is cool. Every girl in our group is a fan of him except me and the bookworm.

Tnc apply she said. What are your conditions? He asked. Nothing much. Just tell them my name if they ask about the logo. I'll sign on it. No worries I'll make It as Small as possible. It's the symbol representing my works. If you don't want it I'll not prepare for you even though it is a good opportunity for me. It's all right. Give me tomorrow before lunch break.

Bye... she said and then left.

Catherine brought the logo during the lunch break. She made it as a badge, so that we can pin it on our dress. It is decorated in periwinkle shade. A person standing in the middle, a bit more taller than the rest, holding a flag. She said that it's Jin. As He is leading the team. And praised him for his leadership spirit. We sat in our usual place after class. Have you ever dated anyone Jin asked? He spoke up after a long time and this is the first sentence he has ever spoken since morning. We turned towards him with a shocked expression.

I pity her, I said, breaking the awkward silence. If you really like her. I suggest, Just staying away from her so that she can be happy for the rest of her life. Jin's face turned red with anger. Shut up before I kill you. Stop jumping into stupid conclusions before knowing the truth.

Just say what happened. Don't waste our time. Chi won said.

It's Sheetal.

There is no such person in our entire campus. Mi So says, Checking her mobile. How do you know? I'm sure she is from our campus.

Who says? There are a few Indians but none of them were Sheetal. Don't interrupt. Judge after listening to what actually happened. He said, giving me a warning look.

Hi!!

I'm Sheetal.

You may not know me but I know you

I ignored it thinking that it was a spam message. But she kept on texting me.

6:05am

Hi..

6:10am

Are you asleep?

When I entered the class room. She texted whether I reached safety. I thought it was someone among you playing a prank on me.

It isn't me we said, together.

I know. I observed you. No one among us and also from our class. So you wasted the entire day spying on others. I'll lend you my notes today, note them and study at home, Yue Ran says, handing him her notes.

Thank you.

She texted me at the end of each class asking, How is the phy class or the respective classes?" So I thought she was from our campus.

Probably, I said. Or else she can't know our time table. I suddenly remembered a thing.

Enough of it. Let's think about where to conduct these games. Chi won said. That's simple. In the old auditorium on the other side of the campus, Mi So says pointing to the direction we are facing now.

Is there such a place on our campus? I've never seen it. Yue ran said.

Oh well! There is. She said, showing us the picture in her mobile.

It's almost a broken, abandoned building.

What if teachers find it? We are doomed, then.

No teacher dares to enter that building.

Why so?

It is a place to punish teachers. It was closed due to a strike by teachers many years ago. They considered it as a building of bad luck. And avoids it as if it is invisible.

Perfect, Jin says, but the thing is they can notice if all of us went missing. So, we can divide our class into three batches. One batch should be in the library and the other batch at the fest. And the third in class and some of them should take turns in the corridor to follow teachers and keep them out of the auditorium. Nice planning, Bookworm says, patting him on shoulder. Let's meet Tomorrow.

I slept on the bed thinking about sheetal. Does she really like him? I think she texted him just because he is famous and good looking. I must admit that he is famous. Even though I don't want to. I heard many of our campus girls are crazy about him. Not only him but there are other two. The first one is tae Oh. The second is him and the last one is Feng.

I ran towards the phone as I suddenly noticed something fishy. I called Li to clarify it.

Is it You?

Who else will answer on my phone other than me

. Not that 'sheetal'

I'm expecting this in the morning. How did you find out? You are a bit late , though.

You are the one who asked me about the time table.
Well. It's me. You didn't tell him right?

No. I didn't.

Thank god. You didn't ruin my plan.

But why did you do that?

But I warn you don't cross your limits.

Rest assured. Just watch the show and enjoy.

Ok, but don't waste too much time on it. He is not worth it.
I'll just play with him for a while and I'll stop texting him.
Only for a few days.

Ok. Don't tell him that it is me even after I stopped texting him.

Why?

I just want to fool him as Sheetal. But not as your friend.

Whatever. Let's keep it a secret. No one else knows about this, right?

No one. Ok bye. My baby is calling me now.

Fine. But don't forget to introduce her to me.

I'll but not now. Bye.

Byeee.

There are already some things occupied in the half of the auditorium. So We arranged our things in the remaining space. Chi Won created a private group in the game "The Knights of Hukaiye". Let's play a warm up match he says, to mi so. She joined him.

By the way this is your ppt. Admin didn't respond. So I prepared it myself.

Thanks. Yue ran said.

Never mind.

He is now checking his phone. Bookworm is reading a book.

Having nothing to do I'm just staring out of the nearby window. I blowed air in remaining balloons. I'm really professional at wasting my time on useless things. 'Let's arrange them' I heard a voice approaching us. Five people entered the the room.

They are Kaite's batch. They are dressed in the same t-shirts. Pinned the batches saying Musical moons. On the badge There are five people holding hands in a circle on a dark red background.

Are we really going to be in the same room with them? Tae oh says. No one's gonna ask you to stay in this room forever. Just for a week, Kaite says patting him on the shoulder and now she was dragged back by Feng.

Now they have started arranging their things. There are two table tennis courts, arrows and a bow, guns and bullets. Deck of cards and chess boards. And the last one is ten chairs. All of them are arranged by Kaite and Feng. Erie and Min Ho are chatting at the other window. Wait, they are now holding hands. It's obvious. They are a couple. Tae is playing with a lighter and flirting with someone on the phone. Bunch of Weirdos. I thought. I wonder how many days we have to bear them..

9:30 am,

Our classmates entered the room as we planned before. Later students from the other section entered. Most of the girls played games prepared by Mi So. Besties from girls chose my game. Well, it's a game about how well you know your friend. Boys from both sections played video games of Chi Won.

10:30 am,

Erie stood on a chair and shouted 'attention'
Anyone here interested in a debate? Don't worry, it is not some sort of game played with serious topics. Like.. How stupid your friend is. You can also choose your topic to fight. We can either fight with words or physically.

Chi Won almost won in every game he played. On the other hand Min Ho won in every card game he played. So people gave them nicknames. King of cards and god of games.

Two couples came to play that stupid debate. It's Nate and Wren, Nia and Jake. Nia and Wren have been friends since childhood. They always appear together everywhere more than the kaite's batch do. They are fighting. They kept shouting that the other is ignoring her because of her boyfriend. Jake and Nate tried all means to stop them but failed.

I think you need to spend some time together and make things straight, Nate says.

Nia agreed.

Let's go for a trip to the place we first met, she says.

same rules. No phones. No parents. No packed food.

Wren and Nia left.

Then what about us shouted Nate, now regretting what he said before. No phones, we told you. They replied.

Is that a debate? Kaite says, or shall we change the name into some problem solving chairs or verbal fighting.

Your naming skills sucks you know that, feng li says.

Then teach me.

Date me.

In your dreams.

12:30

kaite pulled Tae out of the auditorium.

What's wrong with her, Erie asks. She is hungry. Feng Li replies.

They were back after a few minutes. With snacks in their hands.

They are practically feeding each other, Mi So says.
